How should a man carry himself in life (e.g. work, marriage, church, community, relationships)? Is there a "code" to live by? How do I teach my sons to be men? What do I teach my daughters to look for in a husband? Sadly, most American Christians have lost the ability to answer these questions. "The Man Code" is a Biblical code of conduct for intentional and dynamic living, creating a clear and transferable picture of manhood for every generation.
