TUESDAY GUEST ARTISTS

Dick & Jane Schirmacher

Dick and Jane have been making beautiful music together all 52 years of their married life. First meeting on a piano bench as music education students at Northwestern, the Schirmachers still love to share the bench, blessing audiences with delightful four-handed arrangements of hymns, classics and timeless oldies. Dick and Jane have also harmonized their lives, working side by side as music and choir directors, pianists, and organists. Currently, Jane is in her tenth year as the organist at Hope Evangelical Free (New Hope), while Dick volunteers at Bibles for Missions Thrift Store and Good Samaritan Society Specialty Care Center.

SPRING SENIOR DAY Tuesday, May 15

SPRING THEME

“Let us press on to know the LORD;
His going out is sure as the dawn;
He will come to us as the showers,
as the spring rains that water the earth.” Hosea 6:3
