“Disciples of Christ, we have the tools and it’s time for action!”

As followers of Jesus, the Spirit has equipped each of us with the seven essential pieces of spiritual armor. Six are detailed in Ephesians 6 in comparison to those worn by the Roman soldier. The seventh is prayer, but there is no corresponding metaphor since ICBMs had to be invented! Discipleship is the call. The battle is real. And victory is assured to those who follow after the triumphant, resurrected King!

TEACHER: Paul Jorgensen

Paul is no stranger to Camp Lebanon, having served as camp missionary and Bible teacher dating back to 1986. After 20 years of church planting in Europe, Paul served as lead teaching pastor for a thriving Cornerstone

Church in Litchfield, MN. After retiring, he accepted a position at the Mokahum Ministry Center, an arm of the Center for Indian Ministries at Oak Hills Christian College (Bemidji.) Paul has been married to Sharon for 42 years. They’ve been blessed with 4 grown children and 8 grandchildren.
