Camp S'more MAGAZINE

Sharing the goodness of God's work at Camp Lebanon!

More than just a main slogan, guests young and old truly find Camp to be "A Meeting Place With God." This Camp S'more Magazine finds its purpose in telling the stories of God at work, using this place for His purposes in proclaiming the good news of salvation through Jesus, strengthening churches & ministries, and encouraging the lives and hearts of many. Advertising partners, like yourself, make it possible for the magazine size to grow and tell more stories of what God is doing. Camp Lebanon serves ~12,000 yearly onsite guests through program events and rental retreats. At current, 8,000 copies of the magazine are printed, 7,300 (and growing) mailed directly to the homes of Camp's guests, donors & volunteers, while the rest are handed out onsite.
